

Biography

Dan Bengyak is an accomplished executive with over 15 years' experience building great cultures for organizations.

Prior to joining Montefiore St. Luke's Cornwall in July 2013, Dan headed human resources departments in the energy, pharmaceutical and manufacturing industries.

Since joining Montefiore St. Luke's Cornwall, Dan has held the positions of Director of Human Resources, Vice President of Human Resources, and currently Vice President of Administrative Services, where he provides executive oversight of the compliance, contracts, government affairs, human resources, information technology, occupational health & safety, community development and risk management departments.

During his tenure, Dan has been responsible for crafting and executing the engagement and talent management plans that drove employee engagement from the 4th percentile to the 87th percentile and led to Montefiore St. Luke's Cornwall to become one of only 28 hospitals nationwide certified as a Great Place To Work.

He has a Bachelor of Science in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University, a Juris Doctor (JD) Law degree from Pace Law School and is currently enrolled in the Master of Science for Global Health at Northwestern University. He was recognized in 2019 as a Hudson Valley 40 under 40 honoree by the regional Chamber of Commerce, and is active in community and professional organizations, as well as public policy at the regional and state level.

Dan lives in Cornwall on Hudson, NY with his wife Julie, who he met in kindergarten, and their three boys.
