

Erin Muellenberg, JD, CPMSM brings a strong skillset to her exclusive practice of Medical Staff law. Having been a Director of Medical Staff Services in a large community based hospital she is intimately familiar with the daily operations of the Medical Staff Organization and its governance process. Her practice covers advising hospitals, health systems, critical access hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers, and medical groups on the regulatory, compliance and practical requirements for interfacing the medical staff and allied health professional staff with hospital operations.

Erin has written and lectured on a variety of health law topics, including credentialing, peer review, compliance, provider health and well-being, risk management, and the medical staff fair hearing process. She is an active member of the California and National Association of Medical Staff Services, the California Society of Healthcare Attorneys and the American Health Lawyers Association. Erin is currently serving as the Chair of the NAMSS Education Committee and was recently awarded the designation by U.S. News and World Report as Best Lawyers in America for 2021.
