

Jon Burroughs, JD, MD, MBA, FACHE, FAAPL Short Biography:

Dr. Jon Burroughs is embarking upon his sixth professional career having been a professional pianist, mountain climbing guide/hiking guide author, emergency physician, healthcare administrator and governing board member, healthcare administrative expert and consultant, and now a healthcare attorney. He is a healthcare system expert and has participated in over 255 legal cases, written six healthcare administrative books (two of which were given James A. Hamilton national awards by the American College of Healthcare Executives), and serves on the national faculties of the American College of Healthcare Administration, the American Association for Physician Leadership, and the National Association Medical Staff Services. His goal is to help make healthcare a little safer and to focus on healthcare outcomes.